(BETSY JANE'S OWN DEPARTMENT)

In the effectively decorated home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. B. Small, on Wednesday, at high noon, H. Henry Sheldon claimed for his bride their youngest daughter, Bernice Dolores. While the wedding was characterized by the utmost simplicity, yet it lacked no detail which would add to the charm of the event, and to the banishment of the sadness and heartache which marks this severing of home ties. It was the loving hands of the bride's sister, Miss Gladys, that fashioned the bower of lilies, asparagus fern, palms and trailing smylax, suspending from its canopy of flowers and greenery a bell of pink and white roses. To the strains of Lohengrin's beautiful march, rendered by the bride's cousin, Miss Emily Poppe, the bridal twain and attendants took their stations before Rev. J. M. Comerford, who impressively solemnized the ceremony, the bride being given into the keeping of her husband by her father. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Eileen Cowan, of Bennet Valley, while Wm. Sayres, of San Francisco, served in the capacity of groomsman.

A sumptuous breakfast followed the ceremony and felicitations.

The dainty bride was lovely in her gown of pearl charmeuse, with trimmings of shadow lace and tiny, hand-made rosebuds. Her veil of tulle was held in place with orange blossoms and she carried a shower of lilies-of-the valley, intermingled with maiden-hair fern. The maid of honor was charmingly dressed in pink silk mull, and carried a cluster bouquet of lilies.

Only the relatives and a limited number of friends were present, among whom were: Mesdames Catherine and Robt. A. Poppe (grandmother and aunt of the bride), Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Cowan of Bennet Valley, Mr. and Mrs. F. Boshe of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bulotti, and Miss Eda Gillen of Sonoma.

The fair bride—born and reared in Sonoma—is a favorite among a wide circle of friends, by whom her charm of disposition and fineness oi character is appreciated. That her heart and hand have been most worthily bestowed is gratifying to note. Mr. Sholden is a gentleman of pleasing personality and highest character.

Mr. and Mrs. Sholden departed on the afternoon train for the Bay City, where they will be at home to their friends in the Raymond Apartments, 20 Franklin street.

Bon voyage, happy hearts! May you meet with but few clouds on your matrimonial journey, and enjoy a golden sunset.

One of the jolliest dances of the season was that given by the Drum Corps, at Woodman's Hall, Wednesday night. There was a large attendance, and to the excellent music, rendered by Mrs. Lynch and Fred Hansen enjoyment was continuous. Fred Helberg acted as floor manager, and during the evening a good supper was served.

For the pleasure of those who anticipate throughout the week enjoying the whirling maze the night before a day of rest, a grand ball has been arranged for tonight, by the Boys' Band of Sonoma, to be given in Chauvet Hall, Glen Ellen. I have heard a great many avow their intention of going, and am glad to note the fact, because the boys have as their object the purchasing of uniforms. Moreover, the affair will be nicely conducted, with splendid music, as this body of young musicians has acquired a surprising degree of proficiency. You devotees of Terpsichore, don't mistake the road tonight. Drive horses and motors straight on to Glen Ellen.

Next week's attraction for dance-lovers occurs Wednesday night, at Union Hall. This is the second of the fortnightly socials given under the management of Frank Koenig, and with J. A. Kinsella looking after the pleasure of the company, as floor manager, and music by the Pauli-Gottenberg Orchestra, one is assured in promising a really worth-while affair.

An event on the tapis—one to create quite a bit of pleasurable excitement, is another grand ball, from the proceeds of which the Boys' Band hope to make up the necessary amount to uniform that organization. This dance is to be conducted on rather an elaborate scale, with tasteful decorations, and exceptionally good music, furnished by an orchestra of seven pieces.

Seven tables were filled by card players at the Five Hundred Party, given by the Woman's Club, Friday night of last week, and on which occasion cleverness was put to a keen test, with honors fairly well divided when the finals were announced. Mrs. H. Lutgens won the prize—Haviland china dish—as best lady player, while Mr. D. Volquardson carried home necktie and silk hose for reaching gentleman's highest score. To the indefatigable energy of Mrs. Lulu V. Emparan, the ladies attribute the gratifying financial success of the party.

A delightful social gathering was that of Friday afternoon of last week, when a number of friends took uninvited possession of the Ephraim Cutter home, genuinely surprising its hostess. The day was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Cutter, and it did not appear fitting to friends and neighbors that the estimable couple had not arranged to celebrate so memorable an event, hence the surprise successfully carried out by Mesdames F. W. Dobbel, Chas. Cutter, J. D. Wagnon, J. C. Schofner, A. Gigerich, C. C. Cowgill, H. Manuel, H. Burmester, E. J. Franquelin and Misses May Schofner and Dorothy Dobbel. The visitors were laden with armfuls of choice cut flowers, and baskets of tempting viands. Mrs. Cutter was the recipient of several elegant pieces of silver. A score of Sonoma friends unite with their Schellville circle in wishing for Mr. and Mrs Cutter many happy years of life together.

An attraction of special merit bids for favor at the Don Theatre, Monday night, in Kleine's "For Napoleon and France," portraying the thrilling life-story of Robert Larive, a young captain of dragoons in division commanded by his father—his enticement by an adventuress, preventing fulfillment of mission entrusted him; his arrest, trial and condemnation to death; vain plea of his sister for reprieve, but at the crucial moment, the tenderness of the great Napoleon asserts itself, and he tears into bits the decree of death, commanding the young officer to again serve France and its Emperor.

The entertainments to be given at the Don Theatre, Friday and Saturday nights of next week, May 8th and 9th, by the Ladies' Aid of the Congregational Church, will undoubtedly be largely attended. Aside from their worthy object, the programs arranged are most excellent, and sure to please seekers of amusement in theatrical lines. Among the local favorites to assist the first evening, will be Miss Henrietta Weber and Al Jansen, with a vocal duet; vocal solo, Mr. Rowell; piano solo, Miss Emily Poppe; male quartette. These, in connection with orchestral selections, will be interspersed with unusually fine reels of photo plays. The pictures for one evening will portray the following:

"Toad Traits," zoology; "Hot Springs and Geysers of New Zealand," travel; "Winter Sports in Switzerland," sports; "Siberia's Holy Lake," travel; "Alkali Ike's Auto," comedy; "The Fish With a Storage Battery in Its Brain," educational; "The Pearl of the Bosphorus, Constantinople," travel; "Promenade in Rome," travel.

The other set of pictures will show: "A Cure for Suffragettes," comedy; "He's a Lawyer," comedy; "Honfleur, an Old Coast Town of Northern France," scenic; "Breeding Trout by the Million," industrial; "The Coast of California Near Carmel-by-the Sea," scenic; "Lizard Lore," zoology; "Blazing a New Trail in Glacier National Park, Montana," scenic; "The Sago Industry in Borneo," industrial.

Thursday afternoon the spacious Bates home, on Broadway was the scene of a spirited card contest, in which the members of the Bridge Whist Club brought to bear their utmost skill. Mrs. Henry Bates was hostess to the sixteen ladies who comprise the membership of the club, and among whom are some wonderfully clever adepts at the favorite pastime. On this occasion, championship honors were allotted to Mrs. Arthur S. Luce, who received a hemstitched lunch cloth. The parlors were prettily decorated with peonies and roses, and the delectable refreshments, served at daintily-appointed tables, added to a most pleasantly-to-be remembered function.

Mrs. Henry Bates spent yesterday shopping in the metropolis.

Mrs. J. A. Kinsella passed the latter part of the week with relatives at San Rafael.

Miss Ida Manuel came up from San Francisco, Sunday, for a brief visit with her aunt, Mrs. Barbor.

Mrs. B. S. Abraham returned to her home in Oakland, Wednesday, after a pleasurable visit with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Price.

Miss Zoleta Bates spent vacation week with relatives in San Francisco. Her cousin, Joe McMullin, was also sight-seeing several days of last week in the metropolis.

An interesting event of next week, in Schellville, occurs at the Fred Helberg home, Wednesday afternoon, on which occasion Mrs. Helberg entertains a number of lady friends.

Miss Amy Engler, whom we claim as one of our most popular girls, came up from the Bay City, Sunday. The Misses Josephine and Amelia Caminata and Henrietta Webber were other favorite home girls to spend that day here.

Mrs. Robt. A. Poppe was a last Saturday visitor in the metropolis. By-the-bye, Mr. and Mrs. Poppe enjoyed the little visit from their daughter, Miss Emily, who came up from Berkeley to execute the wedding march at the Small-Sholden nuptials.

Mrs. A. Froment had as guest for the week-end, her friend, Mrs. M. Queyrel, of San Francisco. The Froment household, by-the-way, missed quite a bit of its usual cheer, last week, during the absence of its second daughter, Miss Antoinette, in the Bay City.

Mrs. A. Bacala and daughter, Miss Matilda, Mrs. P. Yenni and little daughter, Elsie, and A. Berry of Petaluma enjoyed a motor trip through the coast country, Sunday. Petaluma, Marshall's Point Reyes, Inverness and other points were visited, the party reporting a fine day's outing.

Mrs. Wm. F. Clewe will entertain the members of St. Barbara's Guild, at her pretty home on Second Street, East, Tuesday afternoon of next week. On this occasion, Rev. J. Henry Ochlhoff, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, will resume his reading of selections from Benson's "Thread of Gold."

Mrs. A. Moebes returned from a visit with San Francisco friends last Monday night. Mrs. Moebes entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist-Episcopal Church, at her home on the Baxter tract, Thursday afternoon. The hours were enjoyably spent by the ladies, the hostess serving her guests with delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lynch bade farewell to their wide circle of Sonoma friends, Thursday, departing for Mendocino county, to locate on their stock ranch, ten miles above Potter Valley. This well-liked couple will be greatly missed from our circles, and regret is genuine at their leaving Sonoma. In a musical way, Mrs. Lynch has been most helpful and accommodating at all times, lending her fine voice and assisting as accompanist. May all good fortune attend the popular couple in their new home.

THE DRIED FRUIT MARKET

Present Conditions and Future Prospects—Prunes, Peaches and Apricots Short—Apples and Pears Plentiful

In general conditions prevailing and the future outlook for fruit—green and dried—is centered the interest and attention of Sonoma Valley horticulturists. With a desire to acquaint our readers with prospects now existing, an Index-Tribune representative called on W. F. Clewe, for information on the subject. Mr. Clewe, as local representative of Rosenberg Bros. & Co., the well-known metropolitan fruit brokers, is in a position to speak intelligently, and some interesting facts and figures were furnished us, as follows:

"During a good season, Sonoma Valley produces, approximately, twenty-five car-loads of dried fruit, figures substantiated by an estimate taken from the year 1912, this output being subdivided about as follows: fifteen cars French prunes, four of pears, two of apples and two of peaches, with one or two cars of other fruits, such as silver prunes, apricots, etc. The value of this amount of product is about $75,000.

"It is exceedingly difficult, however, to give any exact data, as the price of green fruit very materially controls the quantity of fruit dried each season, For instance, if the grower is paid $40 to $50 per ton for canning pears, he naturally sells them green; but, if canners offer only $25, as sometimes happens, it pays him better to dry. The same fact holds good for all cut fruits. The price of dried prunes is regulated entirely by crop conditions, each year, together with the amount of stock carried over from the past season.

"It is a well-known fact that, when orchardists have about one-half their usual crop, they make more money then when there is a full yield throughout the State. This may not seem reasonable, but is true, nevertheless. In 'short' years, the prices are, naturally, much higher, and the labor required to harvest the crop, is about one-half. The balance, at the end of the year, will show up on the right side of the ledger.

"If, for example, a grower has (during a 'full-crop' year) ten tons of prunes, which count eighty, and sells them for a three-cent basis, they would net him $600. If the next year, there be a shortage, and he has only six tons, it is natural to suppose that the prunes will be larger—about 60s. Should he sell these at a four-cent basis, which increase in price would be likely, on account of general shortage, he would still get $600 for his crop. Costing, as it does, considerably less to prepare six tons, instead of eight, consequently, the orchardist makes more money on one-half a crop.

"This year, the prune crop is short, generally, and growers can sell their prunes to good advantage, as packers are now offering not less than five-cent basis.

"The dried pear crop will be heavier in our valley, this year, as the young pears were nipped by the frost, and many will not be fit for canning, consequently must be dried. Peaches and apricots are practically wiped out, this season. Apples are well set, and prospects point to a heavy crop, which will tax our several evaporators to their utmost capacity."

A note-worthy fact in connection, is that growers are able to sell their dried fruit in Sonoma, receiving cash for the same upon delivery at the railroad depot, which assuredly is a great convenience.

CITY TRUSTEES IN SESSION

A special meeting of the Board of Trustees, was held Tuesday night, with President Von Hacht in the Chair. The president stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of appointing the different committees, and the election of a city marshal, city attorney and city recorder. Cemetery, Dal Pogetto and Breitenbach.

Sewer, Dal Pogetto and McDevitt.

Printing, Breitenbach and Johnson.

Lights, McDevitt and Dal Pogetto.

A vote being had the following were elected to their respective offices, to hold office during the pleasure of the Board:

City Marshal, Tax Collector and Health Officer, J. H. Albertson.

City Attorney, Robt. A. Poppe.

City Recorder, James Campbell.

The president gave notice for all officials having bonds to file, to have them ready at the next regular meeting of the Board.

No other business being on hand for transaction the Board adjourned.

Fine Home To Be Erected.

Z. Lane, who recently purchased the splendid property—known as "The Ideal Farm," of Geo. Engler, two miles from town, is so pleased with his location, the climate and prospects of Sonoma Valley, that he has decided to convert the place into a permanent home, and will at once erect thereon an elegant, two-story residence, at a cost of several thousand dollars, and of latest architectural design.

The old barn will be moved and replaced by a modern, substantial structure, new fences surround the grounds, and flowers and fruit in garden and orchard, enhance the beauty and value of the Lane farm. Five hundred young prune trees have already been set out, and next season in the neighborhood of four thousand more will be planted.

Men of Mr. Lane's type are of the class we take supreme satisfaction in having located in our midst. We boast many such, but we need more, if we are to keep pace with the onward march of progress. Our prosperity becomes more assured with the settlement in the valley of enterprising men who, possessing the means, will expend it beautifying and improving their properties.

Return from Los Angeles.

Messrs. M. E Cummings and John Piecetti have returned from Los Angeles, where were in attendance at the Grand Parlor of Native Sons, delegates from Sonoma Parlor. They report very largely attended and interesting meetings. The best news, however, was their having secured from the Grand Lodge a contribution of $500 toward the Bear Flag celebration.

The sessions of the Grand Parlor came to an end on Friday night, with a sumptuous banquet, at which toasts were responded to by the following noted Californians: Hons. Lewis F. Byington, Jas. D. Phelan, Joseph R. Knowland, Charles M Belshaw, and I. B. Dockweiler; Justice F. M. Angelotti, Judge Thos. P. White, Louis Mooser (Grand President), and Thos. Monahan, Jr., (Past Grand President).

While all addresses were able efforts, those delivered by James D. Phelan on "California," and Judge White on "Fraternity," with oratorical ability of equal capacity, were exceptionally brilliant, ranking the gifted talkers as "silver-tongued" orators.

NEW BUILDINGS GOING UP

Standard Oil Distributing Plant—Three-Story Hotel For Buena Vista—Other Improvements Noted

An Index-Tribune representative dropped in at the big planing mill of Adam Adler, Monday afternoon, and found all hands—an increased force, too—busily at work.

In response to our query as to how building activity at this season compared with that of last spring, Mr. Adler replied: "Business is one hundred per cent better, as we were doing but little at this time last year. I am satisfied with two or three good contracts on hand, hence you may judge of conditions from the fact that we have double that number."

The Adler mill and yards have supplied materials for the Engler bungalow, now in course of construction, on Napa street, west; also for the new Expositor office, which is the first new place to be covered with Ru-ber-oid Roofing.

Among other contracts in the hands of Mr. Adler are the following:

The cottage of L. B. Singleton, at Buena Vista, the completion of which is expected within the week.

The remodeling of the beautiful Lehrke home, known as Los Amigos Ranch, for which plans were drawn at the Adler mill.

Another big structure, well under way, is the three-story hotel, being built by Otto Schuman, on the old Douglas place, at Buena Vista station, and which was purchased by him about two years ago. Mr. Schuman expects to have his hostelry completed in about six weeks.

The new building, of which Ed Guyot will be owner, is added to the list. This is another improvement for Buena Vista, Russell & Cutter holding building contract The structure is to be a modern storeroom, with plate-glass front, in which Mr. Guyot will conduct a general merchandise business. Living rooms for the family will be located upstairs.

Adler mill and yards have the furnishing of materials for the mammoth distributing plant, to be put in by the Standard Oil Company. Ralph Murphy has the contract for the construction of the plant, which is to be located on the Snyder tract, near Buena Vista. Lumber is expected to arrive within a week or ten days, when work will be commenced. The N. W. R. R. Co., is already putting in a spur at that point.

Within the past month, there has been received over 100,000 feet of lumber at the Adler yard, the handling of which has kept its enterprising owner and his force of workmen mighty busy.

During the winter, Mr. Adler built and placed in position a new belt sander, which was operated for the first time this week, and aids materially in the fine finish of woods turned out by this splendidly-equipped establishment.

Hon. Robt. P. Hill, who for a period of two weeks had been traveling through Southern California points, returned to his home at Eldridge, Saturday night. Mr. Hill reports a fine trip, and the southern country prosperous and attractive.

Catholic Mission.

The congregation of St. Francis' Catholic Church is congratulating itself on securing the holding of an English-spoken Mission in Sonoma, commencing Sunday, May 10th and continuing for one week, by Fathers McGrory and Sullivan, O. M. I., of Buffalo, New York, both of whom are eloquent, forceful speakers, whose zealous labors are wonderfully successful. For the past three months, Fathers Sullivan and McGrory have been conducting Missions for the past three months in San Francisco, going from parish to parish, without cessation. Their two-weeks' labors in St. Peter's Parish, resulted in nine thousand communicants. As it has been almost twenty years since an English Mission has been held here, Rev. Father Comerford anticipates splendid results.

A Wise Appointment

It was with wise forethought and excellent judgment, that Sonoma's new mayor, at a meeting of the City Council, held Monday night, in naming the various committees to serve for the ensuing year, appointed Trustees George Breitenbach and Charles Dal Poggetto members of the Cemetery Committee. Both are experienced in the affairs of the city, and in the fulfillment of their duties have much work ahead of them.

Heretofore, this committee has been looked upon as a joke in this city, but, as a matter of fact, it is one of the most important within the gift of the City Council. For years our public cemetery has been a source of revenue for the city, through the sale of burial plots and interment permits, but, for many years, not a dollar has been expended by the city upon its beautification. In other words, it has been sadly neglected in the past.

Now, that Messrs. Breitenbach and Dal Poggetto have been authorized to look after the work, it goes without saying that Mountain Cemetery will receive that care and attention of which it is deserving, and which is demanded by the people of Sonoma for our "silent city of the dead."

It is, most probably, with this object in view that Mayor Von Hacht named Messrs. Breitenbach and Dal Poggetto, as cemetery committeemen, recognizing the fact that both have given years of faithful, conscientious service in the handling of municipal affairs.

We make the prediction that these gentlemen will prove that this committee is no joke, by at once giving attention to the roadway and otherwise caring for the spot made sacred to our dead. In this, they will certainly have the co-operation of their colleagues on the Board.

Public Utilities and State Railroad Commission

Next Monday, the proposition is to be submitted to the voters of this city, as to whether or not its public utilities will continue to be managed by the City Council, or turned over to the State Railroad Commission.

Ten propositions, covering public utilities, will be voted upon and in stamping your cross in the square opposite each of these, if you favor passing the control of any or all public utility propositions over to the State Railroad Commission, do not forget to put your stamp opposite the word "NO." On the contrary, if you favor the retention of the powers of control by this city, stamp a cross in the square opposite the word "YES."

It is very important to bear this in mind, as one is apt to be misled by the way the law requires the ballot to read. There are many voters who, favoring the control of our public utilities being turned over to the State Railroad Commission, might naturally assume they ought to vote "Yes," and vice versa. So, do not forget to vote "NO," if you want the Railroad Commission to control our public utilities, which, we make bold to remark, it is fully competent to do, and that, too, to the satisfaction of both the people and the public service corporations.

SONOMA WOMEN TO ORGANIZE

A mass meeting for women is hereby called for next Monday, May 4th, at 3 p. m. in Union Hall, to form the Sonoma Valley Auxiliary of the Woman's Board of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. Every woman in the Valley is urged to attend this meeting, and learn of the important part women are taking in this huge and brilliant undertaking. It is expected that the meeting will be addressed by the county officers, viz: Mrs. James S. Sweet, County Chairman; Mrs. Henry Stanislawsky, County Lecturer; Mrs. O. L. Houts, County Secretary; and Mrs. J. Rinner, County Treasurer.

One of the many important duties that will interest the Auxiliaries during 1915, will be the work of local Committees on Hospitality. This is urged not only in preparation for the social phase of womans' responsibility at the time of the Exposition, but that each county may be ready to receive the visitors and prospective settlers who will be looking for congenial homes and profitable locations. Along this line, women can do efficient work and exert an influence that will not cease with the Exposition.

Besides duties, women will be given, through these auxiliaries, no end of opportunities for recreation and fuller enjoyment of the great Fair. So, whether you care to join or not, come to next Monday's meeting and hear more about it.

Thursday, May 7th, when ground will be broken for the beautiful California Building, is to be Sonoma County Day at the Exposition grounds; and County Commissioner Brown of Santa Rosa expects 500 automobiles, with banners and flowers, to parade the streets of San Francisco and then assemble for the exercises at the Fair grounds

The officers appointed for the Sonoma Valley Auxiliary are: Mrs. P. N. Stofen, Chairman; Mrs Henry Wicker, Vice Chairman, Mrs. Frederick T Duhring, Secretary; Mrs. F. Clewe, Treasurer.

GRAPE GROWERS HOLD MEETING

Wednesday night, an important meeting was held in Union Hall, the primary object of which was the presentation of argument as to why State-wide prohibition would prove of serions injury and retard the progress and prosperity of this great commonwealth.

Mr. Carl Dresel was the principal speaker of the evening, presenting clear and convincing reasons why California should not be voted "dry." Mr. Dresel does not talk at random, nor is there any guess work about statements made. He spends time in careful research for facts and figures, which are set forth clearly and concisely. In next week's issue of the Index-Tribune we will give Mr. Dresel's speech in its entirety, if possible.

Other speakers of the evening were: Charles E. Humbert of Cloverdale, President Sonoma County Grape Protective Association (also President Sonoma County Development Association); John P. Overton, of Santa Rosa, Treasurer County Grape Protective Association, and Otto Dresel.

After the speech-making, a local branch of the Grape Protective Association was organized, with following named officers: President, Carl Dresel; Vice-President, Walter Bundschu; Second Vice-President, Charles Spindler; Secretary, J. F. Piecetti; Treasurer, Fred Batto.

The membership roll was circulated, to which was affixed eighty signatures.

LOCAL NEWS OF SONOMA AND IMMEDIATE VICINITY

Happenings in Town of General Interest---What Our Merchants Offer in the Way of Trade Inducements

Judge Thos. Denny was a prominent Santa Rosan in town Monday.

April showers helped the street sprinkler lay the dust Monday. Welcome they were, too.

Richard H. Piatt, of the Sonoma Valley High School faculty, was a Saturday visitor in the metropolis.

Among the prominent Sonoma business men out-of-town Sunday and Monday were Dr. Chas. Harvey and H. L. Bates.

Mrs. Henry Koerner, the hospitable hostess of Oak Grove resort, returned from a few days' sojourn in San Francisco, Monday night.

For the best ice-cream and fresh, choice candies, go to Mrs. P. Yenni. A complete stock of stationery and novelty goods on hand, at prices to suit the public.

Rev. Fathers M. J. Walsh of San Francisco, and Wm. Cleary of Suisun, enjoyed a few days of last week in Sonoma, guests of Rev. J. M. Comerford.

John McDonald has been here for the past week or more, visiting with his sister, Mrs. Irving C. Gobar. Mr. McDonald is a resident of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertellotti welcomed a fine, new baby daughter to their hearts and home, Sunday. Both mother and child are doing nicely, we are pleased to note.

Mrs. S. H. Lewis was called to Santa Rosa, Thursday morning, by the illness of her father, W. F. White. The gentleman's condition was improved at this writing, we are pleased to note.

Walter Hauer departed for Oakland, Monday, after spending several weeks with his aunt, Mrs. Wm. Russell. The young man will remain a month longer in California, before returning to his home in Rochester, New York.

Owing to his continued ill-health, Theodore Keiser has temporarily resigned his position in the big establishment of F. T. Duhring, his place being assumed by James Kehoe. "Fitz's" friends hope his forced vacation will be short-lived.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Rubke and children, Mrs. W. H. Hanger and Cecil Hunter, Mrs. E. Cutter, Misses Amy Rowe, Matty Goodman and Doris Dorman made up a merry party to motor to Santa Rosa and attend the circus, Thursday,

El Verano is experiencing quite a boom, general activity prevailing in that progressive district. Louis Kearney, enterprising owner of the El Verano Lumber Yard, is rushed with orders, and has found it necessary to put on two delivery teams in order to supply the demand.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. M. Allamano deeply regret the death of their six-year-old daughter, Leonore, the little one passing away at the Broadway Sanitorium, yesterday morning, pneumonia being the cause of her demise. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. P. Yenni's place of business is to be improved and enlarged very shortly. An arched double doorway will connect front and rear apartment, new tables and chairs have already been purchased to be placed therein, and otherwise this busy Ice-Cream and Confectionery Parlor will be made more attractive.

The Index-Tribune extends congratulations to the editor of our esteemed contemporary, G. J. K. Bigelow, on the advent of a baby daughter in the Bigelow home, Tuesday. This is the first girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Bigelow—hence great rejoicing.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Cailleaud and daughter, Miss Louise, took their departure, Thursday, en route for New York, from whence they sail for Europe. They will be away three months or longer, possibly, traveling through England, France, Belgium and Italy. Many friends wish them bon voyage.

Wednesday was a jolly day for the students of the Presentation Convent, the young people enjoying a picnic at Sobre Vista. The spot is idealistic for an outing, and the Presentation Sisters greatly appreciate the courtesy extended by Mr. Spreckels, in permitting their pupils to recreate in his beautiful grounds.

Emmet Gottenberg spent the fore part of the week with his brother, Jack, at Belmont, from whom reports are not very encouraging, we regret to state. If the young man's condition will improve sufficiently to assure his withstanding the shock, an operation will be resorted to in the hope of affording relief to the sufferer.

Saturday, April 18, the German-Catholic Church, San Francisco, was the scene of a quiet wedding, the contracting parties being Miss Annie Schritweiser, who arrived on the day of her nuptials from New York, and Frank Algier. The groom is a resident of the Sonoma Valley, having recently purchased a five-acre tract from the Lerke Land and Water Company, erecting thereon a cosy cottage for the reception of his bride. The happy twain arrived home Tuesday night, to find a host of friends of Mr. Algier's waiting to shower them with congratulations.

Isaac Tessler, a junk dealer, on the look-out for old iron or, in lieu, iron that was not too ancient to be useful, if it were possible to secure such, strayed onto the ranch of Judge Jas. Campbell, below town, where he found a cook stove, and as it appealed to him as good, salable junk, and wasn't hot, he forthwith loaded it into his wagon and drove away. On the discovery of the theft, Officer Ryan located the missing property, and placed Tessler under arrest. His bail was fixed at $100, which was furnished by Nichelini & Maffei. Tessler will appear for trial, Monday next, before, in all probability, Justice C. Justi, of Glen Ellen.

The remains of Mrs. Crowley, who passed away in Petaluma this week, were brought to this city, Thursday, and laid to rest beside those of her son and former husband. The deceased was sixty years of age, and was, at one time, a well-known resident (formerly Mrs. Crowfoot) of Glen Ellen. A sad feature in connection, was the sudden passing of Chas. Wilson, of San Francisco, a nephew of Mrs. Crowley, who came to arrange for the interment of her remains. Mr. Wilson returned to Petaluma on Wednesday afternoon, and was found dead in bed the next morning. Heart disease was the cause of death.

One of the most delightful functions of the week occurred on Thursday evening, when a popular and happily-wedded young couple—Mr. and Mrs. George Lowell—celebrated their third wedding anniversary, by entertaining a few friends at their lovely home on Second Street East. In social converse and other diversions the hours were pleasantly passed, the discussion of a delicious supper receiving much time, as well as appreciative and admiring attention. At each cover stood a dainty basket of leather, filled with cherries, and to which was attached a leather place card—quite a pretty novelty. The host and hostess were remembered with several handsome, leather-wrought gifts. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Luce, Mr. and E. T. Casson, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Rubke, Mr. and Mrs. Rea Hunter, and Mrs. Henry Wicker.

Jack Piecetti is, assuredly the "Prince of boosters," and we wish Sonoma Valley had a host of such. "Give me Northern California at all times," enthusiastically declared genial Jack on his return from Los Angeles. "To be sure, there's better roads, lots of enterprise, and splendid improvements, but even so—we'll boast all of this, and more yet. Why, you can't conceive a more inert, apathetic class of people, in whom even the American flag doesn't arouse enthusiasm. It is the dryest country, too, you ever saw, there even being a peculiarity about Southern California rain—a "fellow" being absolutely dry ten minutes after a shower."

Any one who says that our Willie can't play ball must have had a dream while sleeping near a coal oil stove, with the ice chest open. GRAND OPENING

One of the most largely attended events to take place in the valley for years was the "Grand Opening" of Fetters' Hot Springs, last Saturday night. From Vallejo, Napa, Petaluma, Santa Rosa, and other points all over the county auto loads journeyed to attend the event. Many prominent town people were present, too, at which was unanimously voted "one big, glorious time." Music for dancing was furnished by the Sonoma Boys' Band and, despite the immense crowd of dancers on the floor, Mr. and Mrs. Fetters maintained perfect order, personally supervising and excluding from the floor any who abused the privileges extended. An elegant supper was also served. This resort, one of the finest in the valley, has completed an addition to its many attractions by the erection of the theatre and dance hall, the floor of which is unusually fine. Mr. and Mrs. Fetters have arranged with Collins & Mohr for the exhibition of four reels of photo plays every night during the summer, to view which, no admission will be charged. This attraction, in connection with dancing, will add to the popularity of Fetters' Springs, this season.

Morning service at 11 a. m.

Obedience to God's command is the great secret of every good. Disobedience is the root of every evil men endure. You need not care that there are men who labor to diminish the size of God and His world, for they are no more regarded as dangerous to the truth of revelation. If man never had disobeyed God, he would not be troubled with the endless search for some excuse to do his own will. He would not be supinely at ease in soul-destroying delusions. Jesus commanded, "Follow me" and there is nothing worth while, but doing as you are told. You can safely be excused from every trait of religion other than going your own gait. This you never can do without walking in the dark and befogging yourself.

Notice that next Sunday the Y. P. S. C. E. will be at 8 p. m. Miss Buchan will be the leader.

Evening service will be at 8 p. m., because we are now running the Gospel train on the summer schedule. Please do not miss the train to the Everygreen Shores. We do care whether you are aboard or not.

We become a part of life. If it is good and clean and truthful and joyous we become as our environment. If I made my boy grow up in a tainted atmospere I could not lick him for being bad. It would not be a square deal. There is but one way to teach a boy high ideals and that is to live them yourself. Some very wise person said convert the child and you will convert the parent. I would like to begin on the parents or teach that it would be very wise to try walking them together.

On Sunday we celebrate "The Invention of the Cross." The wood of the cross on which the Redeemer died is said to have been discovered at Jerusalem in A. D. 326 by the Empress Helena, mother of Constantine the Great. We commemorate this event May 3rd.

The text for the morning sermon will be Ephesians 3:18 and 19. Sermon topic: "The Measure of the Cross."

In place of the usual sermon at Evening Prayer, there will be a short address on the Church. This will be the second of a series of talks dealing with the historic position, the teaching, the genius of the life of the Church. Any questions handed in before the service will be answered after each talk.

The topic for the coming Sunday Evening will be: "The Protestant Theory of the Church."

Assessor's NOTICE

TO

Property Owners

All taxpayers are required by the constitution to make and deliver to the County Assessor annually a statement, under oath, setting forth specifically all the real and personal property owned by such person, or in his possession, or under his control, at 12 o'clock, M., on the first Monday in March.

Note—The assessment of property throughout the State of California is made during the months of March, April, May and June, and the law requires that each individual property holder file a statement with the assessor or his deputy during these months.

Personal Property

The Assessor must collect the taxes on all personal property when in his opinion said taxes are not a lien upon real property sufficient to secure the payment of the taxes. The Assessor or his deputy must collect such taxes at the time of making the assessment.

State, Poll and Road Tax

Are due on demand from all persons liable to same, between the 1st Monday in March and the 1st Monday in August. The amount is $3.00 each. If not paid by the 1st Monday in August, $1.00 is added, and the amount becomes $3.00 each.

All persons owning real estate that has heretofore been assessed to the wrong name, or those who have purchased real estate within the past year, are requested to appear with their deeds at the Assessor's office or to the deputies, during the months of March, April and May, and have the changes made.

Will those having fruit trees or vines kindly enumerate the same, giving number and age of each kind, so as to save time when the deputy assessor calls.

Any desired information relative to assessments will be furnished upon application at the county assessor's office, Court House, Santa Rosa.
